

JUDICIAL RETENTION REFERENDUM

As part of its professional responsibility to the voting public, the Beaver County Bar Association has conducted a poll of its regular members to determine how they would vote in the retention election of Judge Richard Mancini and Judge James J. Ross of the Court of Common Pleas of Beaver County to be held in November, 2023. The poll is conducted by secret ballot as a non-political undertaking to advise the public of the collective opinion of the Association's members who have had the unique opportunity to observe and evaluate the manner in which the Judge has performed the work of the Court during the Judge's preceding term. The results are as follows:
